

Matt Loera

Housing advocate and community researcher with grounded technical training

Portland, OR · mattslope@gmail.com · 214-336-1774 · mash-web.com

SUMMARY

Community-centered advocate with experience in housing equity, tenant rights, outreach, and research, backed by a B.S. in Computer Science completed in Winter 2025. Especially effective in work that combines policy learning, public engagement, coalition-building, and clear communication across different communities.

EXPERIENCE

Future Generations Collaborative

May 2021-September 2024

Partner · Portland, OR

- Engaged in community-based research related to Indigenous data sovereignty and housing equity.
- Supported planning for Barbie's Village, a housing initiative for women and families escaping domestic violence.
- Conducted outreach and education on equitable housing access, tenant protections, and anti-displacement issues.
- Developed partnerships with local organizations focused on housing security and community support.

Punch Bowl Social

2018-Present

Bar Manager · Portland, OR

- Managed customer-facing operations, staff coordination, and event support in a fast-paced environment.
- Built strong communication and service skills while handling logistics, cash management, and day-to-day operational needs.

SKILLS

Housing & Advocacy: Tenant rights; Housing policy; Land use advocacy; Anti-displacement strategies

Community Work: Outreach; Public engagement; Coalition-building; Participatory action research

Tools: Google Suite; Slack; Trello; Canva; Instagram

EDUCATION

Portland State University

Winter 2025

B.S. in Computer Science · Portland, OR